Cities will compete against like-sized cities in four divisions determined by population. The following types of awards are being offered: Most Cans Collected awards will be presented to the city in each division that collects the most recyclable aluminum beverage cans between October 1 and October 31, 2008; Most Innovative Ideas awards will be presented to one city in each division for developing the most exciting ideas to promote aluminum beverage can recycling in their community; and Partner with Local Keep America Beautiful (KAB) Affiliate awards recognize cities that partner with their local KAB organization to create the most sustainable aluminum beverage can recycling initiative. The deadline to enroll is September 30, 2008. Awards range from $2,500-$5,000. For further information, go to: <http://www.cans4cash.com/cansforcash/default.aspx>.

Terri Lynne Lokoff/Children's Tylenol National Child Care Teacher Awards. The Terri Lynne Lokoff Child Care Foundation acknowledges the critical role of child care teachers in providing quality early care and education. Child care teachers from all fifty states and the District of Columbia will be selected for their commitment and dedication to the children they serve. Each applicant is asked to design an enhancement project for the children in their classroom illustrating the educational, social, and emotional benefits of the project. The deadline for applications is December 31, 2008. Approximately 50 awardees will receive $500 - $1000 as a stipend acknowledging each child care teacher's special dedication and $500 to fund the classroom enhancement project they designed. One recipient will receive the Helene Marks Award and an additional $1,000. Winners will be honored at an awards ceremony in Pennsylvania on April 1, 2009. For further information, go to: http://www.tlccf.org/pr\_nccta.php.

Tools

Effective Practices for Engaging At-Risk Youth in Service. Youth Service America announces a new publication designed to provide an overview of the underlying theory and effective practices for promoting service-learning for young people. Public officials, youth service and service-learning practitioners and teachers, researchers, and others whose mission is to plan and implement community service programs for youth will find this guide helpful. To review and download a copy, go to: http://tools.ysa.org/downloads/modules/Engaging\_At-Risk\_Youth\_in\_Service.pdf.

Free Training Call: Nonprofit Marketing Basics. Network for Good is hosting a free training with Seth Godin. Mr. Godin has spent his career helping nonprofits find a way to stand out. On September 16, 2008, at 1:00 p.m., Mr. Godin will offer his advice directly to nonprofits during Network for Good's Nonprofit 911 teleconference series. Learn the tricks and common pitfalls of nonprofit marketing and get practical tips for creating messages that compel action. Meet Mr. Godin, and learn how and why to use these tips as part of your nonprofit organization's marketing fundraising plans. New IRS 403(b) Requirements. Mike Sorrells from Cherry, Bekaert, & Holland, L.L.P provides a brief overview of the preparations needed to meet the new IRS 403 (b) requirements. The new IRS reporting and compliance regulations for 403(b) retirement plans will take effect on January 1, 2009. Most tax exempt employers and employees are aware that the 403(b) plan offers a significant vehicle for retirement savings. Unlike the 401(k) plan commonly used in the for-profit environment, 403(b) arrangements have never been regulated or subject to the same level of scrutiny by the government. However, this will soon change. For plan years beginning on or after January 1, 2009, 403(b) plans that are subject to ERISA will need to comply with the same annual reporting requirements as other tax advantaged (qualified) plans. For further information, go to: <http://www.cbh.com/bulletin-403bplan.php>.

The Google Grants Program. Google is accepting applications from organizations throughout the U.S. that share the company's philosophy of community service, especially in areas such as science and technology, education, global public health, the environment, youth advocacy, and the arts. Recipients are awarded in-kind advertising support and can use their award of Google's AdWords advertising to inform and engage their constituents online and raise the organization's awareness and increase traffic. Eligible applicants include nonprofit organizations. There is an open deadline date. For further information, go to: <http://www.google.com/grants/>.

Volunteering in American. Corporation for National and Community Services (CNCS) announces a website initiative that provides an in-depth look at volunteering trends, statistics, tools, and resources throughout the U.S. The website provides insight into who is volunteering, what types of volunteer activities they're doing, and what motivates them to begin and sustain their service. Comprehensive information on volunteering in all 50 states and 162 cities across the country is provided. Users can assess how states and cities rank by volunteer rates and volunteer hours, as well as other factors related to volunteering. For further information, go to: <http://www.volunteeringinamerica.gov/>.
